

The Indiana Law is suitable for the peace of mind of the residents. If we want to be solicited, then we typically seek those we want solicitations from. It should not be the other way around. Our household has been peaceful since the implementation of the "no call" list. It is much more important for people in our society to nurture family life as opposed to sitting on the phone with undesirables every evening. Please leave our system alone!